

From Rabbi Estelle Gottman Mills

Happy Are We Whose Temple Is Welcoming

Happy are we whose Temple is welcoming.

*Where we love each member because we have to,
because we do.*

Happy are our members who sit in sixes and fours learning Torah with the rabbi.

For she knows them well enough to know them.

Happy are our Sisterhood caterings, our Seders and pot-luck dinners.

Happy are we whose house is called Bat Yam and whose building is a home.

Adapted from a poem by Danny Siegel

Having served for twenty-six years as a rabbi, this Danny Siegel poem (adapted) captures the warmth, the commitment, and the welcoming atmosphere that drew me to Temple Bat Yam. At our first meetings, I was initially very impressed by the significant level of involvement and pride that the Temple Bat Yam congregants take in their association with the congregation. Having now spent some time as your new rabbi, I am elated that my first impressions have proved to be the reality.

As the rabbi of a such a congregation, I like to say I am a jack-of-all-trades. I am rabbi, educator, and program creator. I love that I work alongside many congregants who give more of their time to the temple than many paid employees, and they do so because they really love the congregation, and because they know their time and efforts will really make a difference. You have shared stories of how a new face cannot appear here without being welcomed and embraced and can quickly become part of a committee if they choose.

I look forward to getting to know each of you, because for me being a rabbi is about creating relationships. It is because of my desire to quickly meet as many of the members of Temple Bat Yam as possible that I have asked Rachel White, who serves as chair of the rabbinic transition committee, to arrange informal get-togethers in the coming months at various congregants' homes so that I can talk with you in a more informal setting. These gatherings are being planned for Berlin, Ocean Pines, Salisbury, and Selbyville. I encourage you to try to attend one near your home or feel free to attend any of the gatherings that works with your schedule. In addition, I would also welcome invitations to join you for meals or a concert, play, movie, or some other event as an opportunity to get to know individual congregants and families. You can feel free to contact me by email or directly on my cell phone.

I am thrilled to have been chosen by Temple Bat Yam to be your new rabbi and I truly believe you are the right choice for me. I love the sense of community that exists when I know each congregant, and more importantly when they know and care about one another. I could not imagine it any other way. For me, a congregation should be like a family; it is where we come together to celebrate life's joys, mark the passing of each year and make our sorrows less bitter due to the support of others in the congregational family. "Happy are we whose house is called Bat Yam and whose building is a home". I truly look forward to getting to know the members of the Temple Bat Yam family.

Warmly, Rabbi Estelle Mills

President's Report:

Welcome Rabbi Mills, By Karen Abrams, President

It is a year of new beginnings and the beginning of a new fiscal year. Please join me in welcoming Rabbi Estelle Mills to our TBY family. And a warm welcome to our newly elected members of our Executive Committee and Board of Trustees. Even the building has a new look. The circle outside our doors has been professionally landscaped and it is beautiful! Whether you stop by to pray or to schmooze, take a moment to enjoy our lovely garden.

Our Annual Meeting was held on June 10th in the social hall. Here are some highlights:

- Financial – the temple is in good financial shape.
- Budget – the 2018 budget was approved.
- Membership – continuing our efforts to reach out to potential members.
- Development – we will be sponsoring a beer truck at SunFest in September, 2018.
- Arts & Furnishings – we have a new portrait of Rabbi Warshaw to be displayed.
- Caring Committee – will continue to care for our sick, our shut-ins, our bereaved.
- House Committee – security and safety will be enhanced.
- Library Committee – another new year of Bagels & Books will be starting soon.

Here are some of the things that we are looking forward to:

- Annual Shabbat Service at the Beach on August 3rd, 7:30PM at the Ocean Pines Beach Club.
- The Sisterhood and Sidney Eagle Memorial Men's Club will continue to develop innovative programs for the congregation to enjoy.
- New memorial tablets for the sanctuary have been ordered.
- High Holy Days – the committee has met and is working hard.
- Glick Gala- is scheduled for November. We are looking forward to another wonderful event.
- A trip to Spain coordinated by Rabbi Mills and Rabbi Warshaw is being planned for May 10-20, 2019.

Thank you to our two members who donated the yummy breakfast that we had before the board meeting.

I am honored to be a part of our warm, welcoming and caring community and I am looking forward to working with Rabbi Mills, the board and all of you to make this year a successful year for our temple and for our community. I welcome your suggestions.

Respectfully, Karen Abrams

Gift of Membership and Friend Campaigns

As announced at our recent Annual Meeting, both the Gift of Membership and Friends programs are continuing. The campaigns have been very successful to date. As of the beginning of June, there were 132 full time members and 41 friends in our congregation.

The Gift of Membership Campaign was launched in late 2014 and invites prospective congregants to become TBY members for twelve months with no dues. It provides a “test drive” period to get to know a new community prior to making a commitment. We encourage joining the Sisterhood and Sidney Eagle Memorial Men’s Club, participating in one or more committees, and joining in activities helping our greater community. New members joining as part of the Campaign are also eligible to join our religious school program and enroll their children for a modest fee.

The Friends membership program was adopted by the TBY Board in May 2015 and is open to those whose primary residence, as determined by the IRS, is located outside of the Delmarva Peninsula and who visit seasonally or on weekends. The annual $250 fee, whether family or single, allows our Friends to avail themselves of multiple offerings, including honoring Yahrzeits, attending High Holiday services at no cost, and meeting our local community congregants whether at Shabbat Services or in social settings. Unlike our full-time members, however, persons in the Friends program are not eligible to vote

Our current Membership Committee, chaired by Immediate Past President Paul Schwab, consists of Steve Cohen (Ocean Pines, MD), Harlan Eagle (Salisbury, MD), David Fox (Arnold and Annapolis Area, MD), Barbara Garber (Millsboro Area, DE), Bob Kaplan (Fenwick and Selbyville, DE), and Jane Lafferman (Ocean View and Bethany Area, DE). An opportunity is available for other congregant volunteers to join this group. At this time, we are particularly interested in adding an additional member who resides in Ocean Pines and one who in resides in Ocean City.

As noted in earlier newsletter announcements, all existing TBY members serve as extensions of our Membership Committee and would be very helpful in bringing our Campaigns, the robustness of our Temple life, and the exciting beginning of Rabbi Mills’ tenure to the attention of friends and colleagues who might be interested in becoming a TBY member. Consider bringing a guest to our Beach Service on August 3, Shabbat Dinners before Services, and the upcoming TBY High Holiday Services. Prospective new members can let their interest be known by contacting our Temple office either via email (templebatyam97@aol.com) or by phone (410-641-4311). If they have questions or are interested in learning more about TBY, they can contact Membership Chair Paul Schwab at paulmschwab@gmail.com or any of the Membership committee members (whose contact information is in our Directory). Additional information is provided on our web site at templebatyam97-oc.org. Thanks to all.

Arts and Furnishings Committee

July, 2018 Report

The Arts and Furnishing Committee of Temple Bat Yam has met several times this quarter to discuss placement of newly donated art pieces and to reconsider changing the placement of current art pieces. As you continue to review your pieces of art acquired over the years, please keep the Temple in mind for any modern Judaic pieces that you would like to share with us either on loan or as a gift.

Three new pieces have been added to our collection. "Letters of Creation," was donated by Cindy and David Fox, from Ocean City, and a metal picture display, "Raising the Torah" was donated by Marilyn Auriemma, also from Ocean City. These two pieces are now hanging in the Social Hall. The third piece, a three dimensional design by Myra Novick, is in the front entrance display case. She calls it Ner Tamid (Eternal Light). Rabbi Susan Warsaw's new portrait will soon grace our hallway. All of these pieces are currently waiting for their appropriate name plate to be posted with it.

Please remember that the forms for donating or loaning any of your family art may still be obtained from Peggy in the Temple Office. Messages for me or the committee may also be left at the Temple office with Peggy or you may call me on my cell phone 301-633-0613.

Sisterhood Annual Report

Our Annual Report to the board presented our monthly achievements over the year, which includes fundraising, fun times and support to the temple.

2017

August - High Holy Days Greetings Book

September - Delmarva Chorus

October - Men and Women's field trip to Laytons Chance Winery

December - On Balance Program

2017 also included General Meetings, Dinner with the Rabbi, pot luck dinners, Sisterhood Shabbat and a Chanukah pot luck dinner.

2018

March - Look and feel beautiful program

April - Casino night

2018 also brought the annual Purim pot luck dinner, Passover Seder with Sisterhood facilitating, pot luck general membership meetings and Dinner with the Rabbi

The Sisterhood also presented the Temple with a $2000 check at the Annual Meeting.

We are coming off of a busy year and are looking forward to an even busier one next year. We are finalizing our events and are hoping that we have something for everyone.

Please watch for our future happenings.

*Anita Winkler,
President of Sisterhood*

Judaica Shop

The Judaica gift shop is open Monday through Friday, from 9:30 am – 1:30 pm. Peggy, our office manager, will be happy to assist you with any purchase. The shop is open on most Friday nights before the service begins. Please contact Bette Bohlmann for any special requests or orders. Feel free to call me at 410-251-6366.

The Sidney Eagle Memorial Mens Club

The Sidney Eagle Memorial Mens Club of Temple Bat Yam visited the Jewish Museum of Maryland on July 11th. We saw a great exhibit on Harry Houdini. We also ate at the famous Attman's Deli and went to the Orioles/Yankee game. The club will be planing exciting projects in the future. If you are interested in joining contact Steve Cohen at Stevecohenjd@gmail.com or Steve Winkler at stevenwinkler0223@gmail.com.

Hal Glick Memorial Golf Classic

The "Hal Glick Memorial Golf Classic" tournament was held on June 12th at River Run. The weather was perfect. We had 18 teams. Bob Beckelman, the golf pro, and his staff kept the day running smoothly. A great time was had by all.

The day began with a hot lunch served by the new Starr Restaurant at River Run, and their staff. Stayton Hastings provided a Bloody Mary Bar sponsored by Tito's Vodka and Sherwood of Salisbury sponsored the hole-in-one for a car.

After the tournament, drinks and a buffet dinner were served by the Starr Restaurant. It was plentiful and delicious.

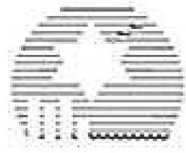

Dinner was followed by prizes for various contests and drawings for many exciting gifts.

Thank you to Lew Meltzer, a member of TBY and owner of River Run, for donating the course for 25 years. And, thank you to our many members who were sponsors, who played golf, or volunteered their time to help the tournament run smoothly.

The tournament should net around $8,850, minus paper, copying and postage.

Caring Committee End of the Year Report 2018

In January 2012 Rabbi Warshaw shared with us her vision of a support group within the temple to help members during times of illness and grieving. Our mission statement is Hineinu: "We are Here, Because We Care." We are a committee of people who see those around us in pain and reach out beyond ourselves to care. We also celebrate happy occasions such as the birth of children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. Rabbi Warshaw has continued to provide throughout the last six years her wisdom, guidance and teaching in bikur cholim (visiting and caring for the sick), communication skills, suggestions for prayers, condolence meals, shiva service and conducting a Shabbat service for someone who is in the hospital or housebound.

At our meeting in April we looked back over the past six years and shared how we have grown as individuals and how we have bonded as committee members. We learned that we are caring people, not care takers. We learned when it's time to reach out with a helping hand and when to step back to let professionals and family members take a larger role. Many of us here today have given and received loving care to and from our temple family.

Being part of this committee has been transforming, and brought us together. Over the years we have had to say goodbye to some of our committee members who have relocated or moved on to other areas. Recently we welcomed four new people to our group.

Temple Bat Yam is a place where each of us can feel that sense of being connected. It doesn't matter whether we are "regulars" or newcomers. It's our little community of people who care for one another. All are welcomed, wanted and needed.

Here are some of the things that the Caring Committee does:

- Celebrate new life by having a tree planted in Israel.
- Lend a caring ear and a shoulder to lean on.
- Run errands.
- Drive people to and from medical appointments.
- Donate and deliver meals when needed.
- Visit the sick at home, hospital, and rehab centers.
- Make phone calls and visits to shut-ins.
- Send get well, condolence and celebratory cards.
- Assist with condolence meals and shiva.
- Provide information and resources.

We will miss Rabbi Warshaw. We are looking forward to continuing our sacred work with Rabbi Mills.

Come Hear What We Have to Say

Assistance to Hearing-Challenged Congregants

Temple Bat Yam is equipped to assist hearing-challenged congregants to better hear our services with the use of individual blue tooth receivers and ear phones with their own volume controls. There are 8 blue tooth receivers with ear buds and 4 hearing aid compatible units.

These receivers will be available in the Judaica Shop before every service on a first come, first serve basis (sorry, we cannot reserve units in advance). You will be asked to leave your car keys with Bette Bohlmann in the Judaica Shop in order to take out the unit. The keys will be returned to you when you return the unit to the Judaica Shop at the end of the service. It will be your responsibility to clean the ear buds with alcohol wipes that will be provided. Happy hearing, and we hope this helps you feel more connected to our services!

LETTERS RECEIVED IN RESPONSE TO A SOLDIER LETTER:

From the family of SFC Jeremy Krebs:

Dear Congregation of Temple Bat Yam,
I received your letter today, and I would like to thank you for your compassionate and supportive prayers that honored the life of my late husband, SFC Jeremy Krebs. Through the pain, it filled my heart with joy to know that Jeremy was thought of with love and appreciation.

I am grateful for your act of kindness. "Kindness is the language that the deaf can hear and the blind can see."- Mark Twain

With sincere thanks,

Erica Krebs

From the family of Sgt. Brock Rollins:

Thank you so much for the lovely letter you sent us regarding the death of our son, SGT Brock Rollins. We do so appreciate all of you honoring him with your prayers & reaching out to us with all of your sympathies. We grieve deeply for our departed son however we know that we will see him again in heaven...

Sincerely,

John & Jackie Dykes

From the family of SPC Michael J. Grella:

Dear Friends,

Thank you so very much for your thoughtful intentions for our beloved son, Michael. We were surprised by your letter but extremely thankful for your heartfelt and caring message. May God bless all of you.

Sincerely,

Joe & Joanne Grella

From the family of Capt. James Gallagher:

Temple Bat Yam Congregation,
My husband Joe and I wanted to thank your congregation for honoring our son Captain James Gallagher during your Sabbath prayers.

While we are devastated by this loss, it is comforting to know that others share in our grief and pain. We are grateful for your thoughts and prayers, not just for Jim, but for all of our departed service men and women.

Thank you so much,
Joe and Luanne Gallagher
