

KOL: THE VOICE OF TBY

From Rabbi Estelle Gottman Mills

Happy Thanksgiving

In a little over a month, most of us will celebrate Thanksgiving. Although Thanksgiving is definitely an American holiday, it is also very much Jewish in spirit. There is no American holiday more in keeping with the Jewish spirit than Thanksgiving. In fact, the pilgrims, in their love of the Old Testament, patterned their Thanksgiving after the celebration of Sukkot. Both holidays are based upon the idea of thanking God for the harvest. Both are agricultural holidays which remind us of the need for both human labor and divine blessing to make the world more productive. Moreover, both holidays are times to marvel in the wonder and beauty of the world. Like Sukkot, Thanksgiving also reminds us of our responsibility to act as thoughtful caretakers of the world's resources and of our obligation to give to those less fortunate.

However, Thanksgiving embodies a quintessential Jewish spirit for other reasons. Its message is one of unity and respect for all God's creations. It is thus a time for families to join together over a meal and appreciate one another and the blessing of loved ones. It is also a time for all Americans to be thankful for our freedoms and blessings as citizens of this nation, particularly in today's world when we are so acutely aware of how many in the world do not have the freedoms we take for granted. Thanksgiving is a holiday that all Americans can celebrate. Ideally it depicts our nation as one people living together in peace, with respect for the diversity of our fellow citizens.

During this holiday, we are reminded to put aside our differences and celebrate our good fortune as citizens of such a wonderful country. As we recall the journey of America's first settlers to the shores of this great country, let us also celebrate the many other waves of immigration to this land and remember how our country welcomed our own forebears, some of whom were fleeing persecution and antisemitism. This Thanksgiving take a moment to recognize the blessings provided by the United States Constitution and the Bill of Rights which safeguard the many freedoms we enjoy, including the right to practice our religion in peace. This Thanksgiving, take a moment to appreciate how fortunate you are to be surrounded by your loved ones.

May you have a Happy Thanksgiving.

President's Report:

By Karen Abrams, President

As we begin a new year at Temple Bat Yam with a new Rabbi, I am so thankful for the many wonderful things that our congregation and community are doing. Here are few of those things:

- We were blessed with a beautiful sunset for our annual beach service in August. It was a joyous service with a great turnout.
- Rachel White arranged for Meet & Greets with the congregants so they would get a chance to know Rabbi Mills.
- In August, we had our first Shabark Shalom; all our 2 and 4 legged members joined in the service on the circle out front. Our Oneg was "dogelicious."
- High Holiday Services were led by Rabbi Mills and accompanied by cantorial soloists, Cheryl Taustin, Phyllis Alpern as well as Kyler Taustin. The event was orchestrated and well coordinated by the Ritual Committee.
- We celebrated our first High Holiday Seder and story. This is a lovely Sephardic custom, and we hope to continue it each year. Thank you Rabbi Mills for introducing it to us.
- In addition to our Deli Dinners from Rosenfeld's, we've added some new fun dinners. So far we have had an Italian dinner and a Mexican dinner, rounded out by a S'More Shabbat. Thank you to the Sisterhood for coordinating the dinners and for helping the rabbi expedite our special onegs.

- We are all thankful to Marsha Rosenstock for coordinating the Friday night onegs.
- Thank you to the Men's Club for rebuilding the Sukkah. The sukkah was used for pizza in the hut, a luncheon in which Rabbi Mills welcomed the CURE Group for lunch, and a men's club luncheon.
- Simchat Torah was an amazing event. It included the unrolling of the Torah, the consecration of the youngest religious school students by Rabbi Mills and flags and marching.
- The Beer Truck fundraiser netted almost $12,000. Thank you Sandy, Lew, Peggy and all the volunteers who worked so hard to raise money.
- The Sisterhood sponsored the first "Breakfast with the Rabbi," where we learned about her family and her background and enjoyed a yummy meal.
- Many thanks to the Officers, Board Members, Trustees and Committee Chairs for their continued contributions of time and expertise.

Gift of Membership and Friend Campaigns

The Gift of Membership Campaign was launched in late 2014 and invites prospective congregants to become TBY members for twelve months with no dues. It provides a “test drive” period to get to know a new community prior to making a commitment. We encourage joining the Sisterhood and Sidney Eagle Memorial Men’s Club, participating in one or more committees, and joining in activities helping our greater community. New members joining as part of the Campaign are also eligible to join our religious school program and enroll their children (with a modest fee). Since the start of this fiscal year July 1, we have several new congregants who have taken us up on this offer.

The Friends membership program was adopted by the TBY Board in May 2015 and is open to those whose primary residence (as determined by the IRS) is located outside of the Delmarva Peninsula and who visit seasonally or on weekends. The annual $250 fee, whether family or single, allows our Friends to avail themselves of multiple offerings, including honoring Yahrzeits, attending High Holiday services at no cost, and meeting our local community congregants whether at Shabbat Services or in social settings.

Unlike our full-time members, however, persons in the Friends program are not eligible to vote. Here also, several additional Friends have joined TBY.

In our last newsletter, the participants on our membership committee were noted. We continue to be particularly interested in adding an additional member who resides in Ocean Pines and one who resides in Ocean City. We cannot overemphasize that all existing TBY members serve as extensions of our Membership Committee and can be very helpful in bringing our Campaigns, the robustness of our Temple life, and the exciting beginning of Rabbi Mills’ tenure to the attention of friends and colleagues who might be interested in becoming a TBY member. Prospective new members can let their interest be known by contacting our Temple office either via email (templebatyam97@aol.com) or by phone (410-641-4311). If they have questions or are interested in learning more about TBY, they can contact Membership Chair Paul Schwab at paulmschwab@gmail.com or any of the Membership committee members (whose contact information is in our Directory). Additional information is provided on our website at templebatyam97-oc.org.

The Sidney Eagle Memorial Men's Club

The Sydney Eagle Memorial Men's Club of Temple Bat Yam was proud to refurbish the outside Sukkah under the guidance of George Rosenstock. It was used three times during the week long holiday of Sukkot.

The first of October was the beginning of the Monday Night Classic Movie and Dinner Night sponsored by the Men's Club. It was open to everyone who is interested in attending. It brought together a record 30 people. The next night out will be Monday Oct 22nd.

On Sat Nov 3rd there will be a fundraiser walk in Salisbury MD to fight Alzheimer's. It is not too late to sign up and join TEAM TEMPLE BAT YAM. Please do so by responding to Steve Winkler at stevewinkler0223@gmail.com

Together with Sisterhood, the Men's Club will put on their chef's hats and prepare a BBQ dinner on Friday Nov. 2nd using the new outdoor grill purchased by the Temple.

Working together, the Men's Club and Sisterhood have produced many successful events. Another such event is being planned for Dec. 25th in the form of bingo and a Chinese meal.

We welcome anybody who would like to join the Men's Club to contact Steve Cohen at stevecohnjd@gmail.com

Arts and Furnishings Committee

October, 2018 Report

Welcome to Fall. We hope everyone has enjoyed Happy Jewish Holidays this past September.

Summer 2018 has kept the Committee busy doing some of the reorganizing and restructuring of the artwork to provide an appropriate place for Rabbi Warshaw's portrait for display. We found that the Hall outside the Library was a good place for everyone to enjoy it as well as Rabbi Sternberger's portrait.

One formerly loaned picture that was on display has been removed from the Social Hall by its owner. To fill the space temporarily, Bob and I have loaned one of our personal pictures that we inherited from his Aunt and Uncle, Lou and Sylvia Lehman, of New Jersey. We will share it with the Temple until another more suitable picture is found to replace it.

The project for the Social Hall to describe and give the history of the beautiful stained glass windows in the Sanctuary is off to a good start. Planning has begun, materials have been acquired, and interviews with Pamela and Stu Smollins took place in early August. Carole Eagle has joined the Committee to help us with some aspects of the stained glass project which became an offshoot of our interview with the Smollins. So progress is happening, but it will take us some time to complete.

Please remember you can always reach me or Peggy to donate or loan new or appropriate contemporary Judaic works of art.

Commentary by Bonnie Kaplan, Chairperson

Caring Committee

Temple Bat Yam is our spiritual home and the congregation is our spiritual community. This message is as old as our tradition and is still current today. The TBY Caring Committee's ideals begin with the basic assumption that the mitzvah of Bikkur Cholim to visit and extend aid to the sick along with offering Mi Sheberach prayers are just a part of who we are as Jews.

How can the Caring Committee meet your needs?

Bette Bohlmann 410-251-6366 and let us know.

Bette Bohlmann

Social Media

The Temple Bat Yam Board of Directors is interested in expanding our social media presence. We are looking for a few volunteers to meet short term on a committee to strategize our options and develop a plan. If you are interested in social media and have a bit of time to spare, please email Rachel White at rachelckw529@gmail.com.

Thanks! Rachel White

Meet & Greet

When Rabbi Mills joined Temple Bat Yam she wanted to have an opportunity to meet with smaller groups of people in different locations. We quickly put together a few “Meet and Greets.” These were held by the White’s/Sabo’s in Salisbury, the Eanet’s in Ocean View, the Reitkopp’s in Bayside, Roberta Bass in Ocean Pines and the Weckstein’s in Ocean City. Our hosts opened their homes to a group of 10-20 congregants so that they could mingle with the new Rabbi. There were many who hadn’t met those who also lived in their areas which was an unexpected benefit for all! Rabbi Mills was so pleased that the events were well attended and she was able to spend time with people in a casual setting.

Thank you to all who opened up their homes!

Rachel White

Judaica Shop

The Judaica gift shop is open Monday through Friday, from 9:30 am – 1:30 pm. Peggy, our office manager, will be happy to assist you with any purchase. The shop is open on most Friday nights before the service begins. Please contact Bette Bohlmann for any special requests or orders at 410-251-6366.

Come Hear What We Have to Say

Assistance to Hearing Challenged Congregants

Temple Bat Yam is equipped to assist hearing challenged congregants to better hear our services with the use of individual blue tooth receivers and ear phones with their own volume controls. There are 8 blue tooth receivers with ear buds and 4 hearing aid compatible units.

These receivers will be available in the Judaica Shop before every service on a first come, first serve basis (sorry, we cannot reserve units in advance).

You will be asked to leave your car keys with Bette Bohlmann in the Judaica Shop in order to take out the unit. The keys will be returned to you when you return the unit to the Judaica Shop at the end of the service. It will be your responsibility to clean the ear buds with alcohol wipes that will be provided.

Happy hearing, and we hope this helps you feel more connected to our services!

Steve Winkler

Please note: Special thanks go to Steve Winkler, George Rosenstock, Steve Martin (Sound Consultant to TBY), and an anonymous donor for making this project a reality.....Paul Schwab

The High Holy Days Committee

This year the High Holy Days committee was headed by Steve Winkler, who oversaw the work of an incredible group of people. First and foremost, I would like to thank Rabbi Mills, Cheryl Taustin, Phyllis Alpern, and Kyler Taustin for performing such awe inspiring services during this period.

The behind the scenes committee members, Bette Bohlmann, Don Hamburg, Christine Glick, Vereonica

Kahn, Ellen Krawczak, Cheryl Taustin and Peggy and Joe Tomarelli made everything seem flawless to our congregants.

I would also like to thank Grayce Cohen and Buddy Siegel for advising me with their years of wisdom doing this job. I hope to continue the tradition as long as I can.
