

Reflections from the Rabbi

By Rabbi Estelle Mills

The opportunity to cast a vote for our nation's president for the coming four years will close on Tuesday, November 3rd. A little over a month later, on Thursday December 10th, we will kindle the first candle of Chanukah. There is a legend that connects the celebration of Chanukah to the American colonists' victory in the War of Independence and the subsequent freedoms and rights, including the right to vote, that were articulated in the Declaration of Independence and the American Constitution.

The tale claims that on the first night of Chanukah in 1777 as then General George Washington camped with his cold and hungry Continental Army at Valley Forge, a Jewish soldier inspired him to continue fighting. According to the story, "Washington was walking among his troops when he saw one soldier sitting apart from the others, huddled over two tiny flames in a strange looking candelabra. Washington approached the soldier and asked him what he was doing. The soldier replied that he was Jewish and had lit the candles to celebrate Chanukah, a festival commemorating the miraculous victory of his people many centuries ago over the tyranny of a much better equipped and more powerful enemy who had sought to deny them their freedom. The soldier then expressed his confidence that just as, with the help of God, the Jews of ancient times were ultimately victorious, so too would Washington's troops emerge victorious in their fight for freedom. Washington's response was "perhaps we are not as lost as our enemies would have us believe. I rejoice in the Maccabees' success, though it is long past...It pleases me to think that miracles still happen." Supposedly Washington was so moved by the Chanukah story that he visited this soldier after the war. It is from the unverified diary of the soldier's daughter relating the visit that this legend was born.

Although the story's validity is disputed by historians, the parallels between the Jewish people's fight and the colonists' battle for freedom are not debatable. According to writer Budd Schulberg:

- Chanukah reminds us that Jewish ideals influenced America's founding. Judaism and its reverence for the individual influenced the ideas that Jefferson and the other founding fathers stipulated in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution.
- Benjamin Franklin and Samuel Adams were reflections of Mattathias.
- The Judean resistance to the Assyrian demands that they pray to idols led to many "Boston massacres".
- The small band of Maccabees who courageously defied the foreign rulers served as precursors to the Boston Tea Party.
- Judah Maccabee's men were as ragged as George Washington's troops at Valley Forge. Like Washington, Judah witnessed many of them desert and he sustained the morale of the others with his confidence proclaiming to his followers: "they come against us in much pride and iniquity. We fight for our lives and our precepts."

- The forces under Judah outmaneuver the invader. According to the Book of Maccabees,
- thousands of Syrian footmen crept up on Judah's camp at night, but Judah had already moved his men into the mountains. Then suddenly he appeared in force on the plains and won a great battle. It was their "Saratoga".
- Against the Syrian general, Seron, Judah launched a surprise attack. It was similar to the famous crossing of the Delaware which enabled Washington to catch the mercenaries off guard at Trenton.
- When Antiochus sent fresh troops against Judah, his men desperately called upon God: "How shall we be able to stand except with You as our help". In similar straits, Jefferson cried out; "We devoutly implore the assistance of Almighty God to deliver us from the evils of this civil war".

- Judah's declaration, "it is better for us to die in battle than to behold the calamities of our people and our sanctuary," is echoed in Patrick Henry's famous words "Give me liberty or give me death."
- The Judeans found some comfort from the horror of war in the knowledge that they were establishing something precious for future generations, and so it was also for those fighting for American Independence."

As we kindle the lights of Chanukah this year in the aftermath of this year's divisive election, may we recall both our Jewish ancestors' and our American founders' sacrifices to ensure our freedoms and let us never take for granted how precious freedom is. May this year's Chanukah candles reinvigorate and inspire hope and courage for the ideals upon which Judaism and America were created.

President's Message

By Candy Gusst

Dear Friends,

We started meeting every Friday in early July, at 10:00 am via Zoom. We didn't miss a week and at times we spoke twice a week. The first week we decided on all of the actions that needed to be done and the actions that didn't need to be done this year. And thus, the High Holy Days team swung into action: Rabbi Mills, Steve Winkler, Bette Bohlmann and myself.

We searched out a technical professional to help us for we were all technically challenged and the temple was bereft of the technical equipment needed. After weeks of conversations with two professionals we decided to go with Thunder Productions. Rabbi Mills took the lead on the technical front. It was a mighty task. She also found an excellent cantorial soloist and pianist to accompany her.

Next, Bette put together a spreadsheet with every task we could think of. Tasks were assigned to each of us to complete by an assigned date. As the weeks went by the spreadsheet was refined. There were tasks we didn't need this year such as getting ushers. There were tasks we hadn't done in previous years such as making the services as interactive as possible to foster the feeling of community. And so, time was built into the services for congregants to pray before the open ark and light candles. There was time for congregants to chat before a service and during breaks. There were times it sounded like the Tower of Babel....chat, chat, chat! Tashlich was available in three locations to make it easier to attend with less people in one area.

Christine Glick was concerned about the Yiskor book. She and Rabbi Mills worked in tandem with an end result of an amazing Virtual Yiskor book. Then there was Don Hamburg who orchestrated the Congregants Hour highlighting Mady and David Segal. Talk about interesting careers!

Some brave souls came into the temple for honors and some were able to deliver their readings via Zoom. Behind the scenes were Peggy and Joe Tomarelli making sure our many needs were supported.

Certainly, there were more people involved in making our first ever virtual High Holy Day services a success. Forgive me if I forgot to mention you. Our thanks go out to all of you who helped us meet the challenges this year presented.

I hope this brings some light to the scope of creating services that were very meaningful and meant to bring peace and community to our congregants, fulfilling the religious and personal needs of us all.

Wishing all of you a healthy and sweet new year. May we all be written in the book of life for the year 5781.

Planned Giving—An Opportunity for All Congregants

Ensuring the Future Strength and Continuity of Temple Bat Yam

As you may recall, we announced in our last TBY Newsletter the establishment of a Planned Giving Program at our Temple. A newly formed subcommittee has set an ambitious goal of having 50 percent of TBY congregants become members of our new “Heritage Society.” As we noted, all it takes to be a Society member is to declare your non-binding commitment to provide a planned gift to TBY.

Now as we start our New Year, it is timely to present an update regarding the progress of this initiative. In the past, TBY has been fortunate in receiving bequests made by Hal Glick, Leslie Segall, the Nestler family, and the Rabinowitz family. Since our last newsletter, Stu and Susanna Eisenman, Paul and Emily Schwab, and Stu and Pamela Smolins have become Society members given their stated commitment to provide a planned gift to our Temple.

Second, as you may have already noted, our Temple website has recently been modified to introduce the program and provide a Statement of Intention form. That announcement includes a personal statement graciously given by Christine Glick on behalf of her and Hal Glick. Included below is a personal statement of his story and support for the program graciously provided by Ed Wirkman. Ed’s remarks illustrate just another example of how TBY can make a difference in your life as well as in future lives of our congregants, even those impacts that may be unplanned or unexpected.

For further information regarding this evolving program, please feel free to contact Paul Schwab, Chair of the Planned Giving Subcommittee at paulmschwab@gmail.com or at 703-624-0500. The Statement of Intention form can be found in this newsletter. Thank you in advance for considering your choice to make a planned gift to build a heritage future for our Temple.

“I have been a member of TBY since 1997 when I moved to Berlin after I retired. At first, I only attended the High Holiday services and on Shabbat to observe my parent’s yahrzeits. A few years later I was fortunate enough to meet Leslie Segall at a temple meeting. My accidental meeting with Leslie was a life changing event for both of us. After dating for a little more than a year we decided to become lifetime partners and live together.

Leslie was very active at TBY as a member of the Board of Directors and Sisterhood. It was through her urging that I became an active member of the Men’s Club. Together, we enjoyed many years of engaging in various religious and social activities. We shared a very happy life together.

Being a member of TBY played a very important role in giving me the opportunity to enjoy a meaningful, joy filled and loving relationship during the senior years of my life. It’s easy to believe that this kind of romance could happen again to other people in the future.

Please consider making a commitment of intention to ensure that Temple Bat Yam will continue to always be there for Jewish families on the eastern shore.”

Caring Committee

The Caring Committee, under the leadership of Rabbi Mills, continues to be a vital part of community life at Temple Bat Yam. We are a committee of caring volunteers who are compassionate, respectful, and supportive to our temple family.

Here's a brief rundown of some of the things that we do:

- Celebrate new life by having a tree planted in Israel
- Lend a caring ear and a shoulder to lean on
- Run errands
- Drive people to and from local medical appointments
- Donate and deliver meals when needed
- Visit the sick at home and in the hospital

And the list goes on. This amazing group of volunteers continues to evolve and change as situations present themselves.

We need your help! You are our eyes and ears in this congregation. Please contact us or Rabbi Mills if you know of a need within our temple community.

Gift Shop

Dear Temple Bat Yam Members and Friends,

As the holidays approach, I would like to invite you to contact me if you are interested in purchasing items from our Gift Shop. If you want to set up a private time to shop, I will be glad to meet you at the Temple. Masks are required. We have a lovely selection of Life Cycle Gifts, Sabbath, Hanukkah and Yahrzeit Candles, Seder Plates, Hanukkah Menorahs, Jewelry and children's gifts. For those that want to begin their holiday shopping, we will be having a Sisterhood Gift Shop pre-holiday sale on November 1, 2020, at 11 a.m. under the portico at TBY. Come out and support US! I look forward to working with you in the future.

Thank you, Karen Abrams

A Note from the Editor & Designer

Another 3 months have come and gone, and TBY continues to function with strength and efficiency. The articles and photos in this newsletter showcase what we have been doing during those months, and provide some information as to what events are upcoming. Onward to what we pray is a very happy, healthy New Year.

Feel free to send any ideas or articles at any time to efbmppnol@aol.com. We love to hear from you. Please be sure to send any photos as an attachment to your email, or we cannot download them. Anything you send will be held until the next newsletter.

Ellen B. and Barbara P.

Upcoming Events

Thursday, October 22nd: 12:00 noon – A Conversation with Jeremy Bernstein, author of “Hebrew Roots, Jewish Routes: A Tribal Language In a Global World”.

Registration in advance is required at <https://us02web.zoom.us/join/zoom/register/tZYpd-GhrDkjE920rHXBxfMRD74z5agLVPfx>. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

Friday October 23rd: is Parshat Noah, the story of Noah's Ark. It has become a tradition to have a special blessing for animals during this Shabbat. All pets are invited to sit with their owners on Zoom (muted, of course) for Sh'bark Shalom: a special service in appreciation of our furry companions.

Thursday October 29th: 7:00 pm - Jewish Lessons from the Garden with Rabbi Michael Birnholz of Temple Beth Shalom, Vero Beach, Florida

Pickles: In this session we have a taste of the Jewish history of fermentation. What times, places did Jews ferment foods? What ingredients and methods did they use? What is done in our time and space? It will include a demonstration of how to make your own pickles, while considering the spiritual lessons of pickling. (If you would like to make pickles during the live demonstration, have these supplies available: jar with lid, non-iodized salt, raw vegetables such as carrots or cucumbers or cauliflower, distilled water, and pickling spices such as mustard seed or coriander or fresh dill.) Please RSVP to the Temple office no later than Monday, October 26th to reserve your spot and to receive the Zoom link for this class.

Saturday, October 31st: Team Temple Bat Yam is participating in this year's Walk to End Alzheimer's. The walk will take place at the pond at the South Gate of Ocean Pines at 11:00 AM. Plan to meet the team at 10:00AM at the Sports Core Pool parking lot for a pre-walk, outdoor, social distanced and masked tailgate party! Please contact Steve Winkler at stevenwinkler0223@gmail.com or 410-572-4245 and let him know if you will be attending and what snacks you would like to bring for yourself and the team! Come out and support TBY walkers at this very important event! And please feel free to join the walkers as they walk around the pond! (Once around is ¾ of a mile.)

Thanks to Steve Cohen, Steve Kirschbaum, Marc Garber and George Rosenstock of the Men's Club for their expertise in building the Sukkah.

Contributions as of October 15, 2020

TBY Participating in Amazon Smile Program – A Friendly Reminder

As noted earlier, now you, your family members, your friends, your neighbors, and your colleagues can help support Temple Bat Yam through our exciting partnership with the Amazon Smile Program.

How Can I Join? When visiting AmazonSmile (Google the name and then select the Get Started icon under AmazonSmile), customers are prompted to select a charitable organization. Temple Bat Yam in Berlin, Maryland is fully registered. Just write in our Temple as the selected charitable organization and complete the registration process. For eligible purchases at AmazonSmile, the AmazonSmile Foundation will donate 0.5% of the purchase price to the customer's selected charitable organization.

How Does the Temple receive the donations? Each quarter, the AmazonSmile Foundation makes donations to eligible charitable organizations by electronic funds transfer. Donations will be transferred approximately 45 days after the end of each calendar quarter. To Account for Product returns, a portion of the quarterly donations will be withheld until the next donation cycle, subject to any restrictions due to returns from prior quarters.

A number of our congregants have joined the program since our first announcement.

We look forward to your participation in this partnership our Temple has with AmazonSmile. Thanks in advance for your support of Temple Bat Yam. If you have any questions, please contact the Temple office at 410-641-4311.

Sincerely,

TBY Board of Directors

Did you know that Temple Bat Yam has a unique AmazonSmile link that makes it easier for people to find and support our organization?

What is Temple Bat Yam's unique link?

<http://smile.amazon.com/ch/52-1651703>

What does my unique link do?

When customers click on TBY's unique link, they skip the process to search for a charity to support among over 1 million eligible charities. Instead, they're taken to smile.amazon.com and are automatically asked if they want to support Temple Bat Yam.

Can I just tell supporters to search for Temple Bat Yam at smile.amazon.com?

Yes. However, that makes it harder for your supporters to find and select TBY. There are over 1 million eligible charities, and customers may end up picking a different organization during the selection process. Sharing our charity link increases the likelihood that customers will select TBY before they start shopping.

Do supporters have to click on Temple Bat Yam's AmazonSmile link every time they shop?

No. Once customers select your organization, TBY will receive 0.5% of the price of all their eligible smile.amazon.com purchases, regardless of whether they use TBY's unique AmazonSmile link to return to the site. However, we recommend that supporters bookmark and use your link so they don't accidentally shop at www.amazon.com instead of smile.amazon.com. Only purchases made at smile.amazon.com are eligible for donations.

What do customers that have already selected a charity see when they click on TBY's unique link?

If someone is already supporting TBY and they click on our unique link, they will simply be taken to smile.amazon.com so they can start shopping. They do not have to re-select your charity. If someone supporting a different charity clicks on your charity link, they are asked if they'd like to switch to support TBY.
