Friend of Temple Bat Yam Membership Application

Temple Bat Yam (TBY) is a unique entity on the Delmarva Peninsula that maintains the traditions and lessons of a rich Jewish heritage while concurrently respecting the realities and integrity of interfaith marriages and families. It exists as a place where persons can connect to something larger than themselves – to their community, to ideas that can transform our world, and even to a transcendent experience.

Our "Friend of Temple Bat Yam" membership is open to those whose primary residence (as determined by the IRS) is located outside of the Delmarva Peninsula and who visit seasonally or on weekends. This membership category is available to you for our current fiscal year for $250, whether family or individual. Friends of TBY can avail themselves of multiple offerings, including honoring Yahrzeits at our Temple, seeking a personal consultation with our Rabbi Estelle Mills, attending High Holiday services at no cost, and meeting our local community congregants.

YAHRZEIT INFORMATION

- Traditionally, Yahrzeit is observed for one's deceased spouse, parents, siblings, children and grandchildren. You may also choose to observe Yahrzeit for others who were close to you. We will notify you each year as the Yahrzeit of a departed loved one approaches, and that person's name will be recited in the synagogue during Shabbat services.
- Yahrzeits are generally observed according to the Hebrew calendar. If you would prefer to observe a particular Yahrzeit according to the secular calendar, please note as such in the corresponding box. Please list dates according to the secular calendar, and be sure to include the year, to allow for proper conversion to the Hebrew calendar.
